

Sale of Lead White within the EC

The sale of Lead White is restricted by law by the European Community.

The use of Lead White is permitted for the restoration and preservation of art works and monuments, only if the use of substitutes is not appropriate,

and you must give a letter of understanding how to use lead compounds and for which project.